ALEX G. SPANOS

Chairman of Board/President

Alex Spanos confidently eyes the future of the San Diego Chargers as his organization continues to build one of the National Football League's emerging teams. In 1987 the Chargers posted their first winning season in four years. For the first time since Spanos assumed control of the Chargers in 1984 two of his appointees, director of football operations Steve Ortmayer and head coach Al Saunders, played major roles as the Chargers maneuvered through a difficult season.

A players' strike that canceled one game, the assemblage of a replacement team, and the continued transition from older veterans to younger, more promising players tested the organization. The Chargers finished with an 8-7 record and their 3-0 mark during the replacement season was the best in the league.

Spanos, who hired Ortmayer Jan. 27, 1987, and Saunders Oct.

29, 1986, has had the difficult task of rebuilding a team that had grown old. But Spanos, who purchased majority interest in the Chargers Aug. 1, 1984, brought to the organization the same aggressive, dynamic approach that helped him create one of America's most successful business enterprises.

Alexander Gus Spanos, born Sept. 28, 1923, in Stockton, California, is the son of Greek immigrants. He began working at age 8 in his father's restaurant, often rising at 2 a.m. to help prepare pastries before attending school. In 1951 he began his own business, a catering service for migrant farm workers in the area around Stockton. He later began investing in apartment buildings. In 1960 Spanos formed the A.G. Spanos construction company. He now is chairman of the board of the company that has built almost 60,000 apartment units throughout the United States. Spanos also has constructed apartment units in San Diego since assuming leadership of the Chargers.

Spanos's career was recognized in 1986 when he became one of eighty Americans to be awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor by the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation and the New York Statue of Liberty Commission. In a special ceremony on Ellis Island the honorees were cited for being "outstanding American citizens who have distinguished themselves in their respective fields of endeavor, while preserving the values of their particular heritages."

In spite of his demanding business schedule and real estate interests, Spanos maintained a lifelong interest in sports. He earned varsity letters in swimming and diving at the University of the Pacific, and in recent years he distinguished himself as an amateur golfer. In 1977, Spanos was a member of the winning team at the Bob Hope Desert Pro-Am Classic at Palm Desert and in 1980 was selected to represent the United States in the British Amateur Golf Championship, thus becoming the first person to ever win both tournaments.

Spanos also has made many contributions to sports. In 1981 the Alex G. Spanos Center was dedicated at the University of the Pacific. Recognized as the outstanding structure of its kind in Central California, the Spanos Center is used by both the university and the city-wide Stockton community for a variety of functions and activities.

Spanos also installed an artificial turf field at the Chargers' San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium practice facility and in 1988 presented the Chargers with state-of-the-art, permanent training facilities at the Chargers' University of California at San Diego training camp.

Spanos is Honorary Regent of the University of the Pacific and a Trustee at the Eisenhower Medical Center in Palm Springs. He also has donated substantially to benefit critically ill youngsters at Children's Hospital and Health Center in San Diego. In 1985 Spanos was chairman of San Diego Children's Hospital's first Miracle Network Telethon. In 1987 Spanos served as chairman of the San Diego County Easter Seals Telethon and was chairman of the Loaned Executive campaign during the annual United Way/CHAD drive in San Diego County.

Alex and his lovely wife Faye have four children, Dean, Dea, Alexis (Mrs. Barry Ruhl), and Michael. Alex and Faye have six grandchildren and maintain residences in Tarpon Springs, Fla., and Palm Springs, California.

Other Chargers partners include Jack Foreman, Bill Fox, Ernest Hahn, former majority owner Barron Hilton, George Pernicano, Robert Reiss, and the estate of Willametta K. Day.

DEAN SPANOS

Vice Chairman

Dean Spanos is Alex Spanos' eldest son and closest advisor in matters relating to the San Diego Chargers and A.G. Spanos companies.

He represents the San Diego Chargers and his father at all league meetings and assists in administering all business-related matters for the Chargers.

He is President of A.G. Spanos Enterprises, A.G. Spanos Construction, A.G. Spanos Development, A.G.S. Financial and all other A.G. Spanos-held companies.

Dean is responsible for all operations nationwide for the A.G.S. development and financial companies.

Dean Alexander Spanos was born in Stockton, California, May 26, 1950. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of the Pacific and has been a Regent of the University since October, 1982.

Dean is an accomplished golfer, having teamed with Hubert Green to win the Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble Beach, California, in 1985. He also won the Most Valuable Amateur trophy for being the amateur player who most helped his professional partner.

Dean is married to the former Susan Lucas. They reside in La Jolla with their two sons, Alexander (July 2, 1977) and John (Nov. 7, 1979).

STEVE ORTMAYER

Director of Football Operations
14th NFL Season
2nd Season with Chargers

Ortmayer took over the reins of the Chargers' football program Jan. 27, 1987, when he was named Director of Football Operations.

Ortmayer has been responsible for the acquisition of some of the brightest young talent in the National Football League through clever trading and with the past two collegiate drafts.

In his first major undertaking with the Chargers since coming from their AFC West rival, Los Angeles Raiders, Ortmayer made "all the right moves" with maneuvers to obtain four-time Pro Bowl linebacker Chip Banks in a trade with Cleveland and "chose the best in the 1987 NFL draft" among the 28 teams, according to some of football's leading experts.

Gordon Forbes of USA Today said, "The San Diego Chargers took another significant step forward in owner Alex Spanos' rebuilding plan by making all the right moves (in the NFL draft)."

Ortmayer continued to produce in the 1988 collegiate draft. The selection of "home run hitters" like wide receivers Anthony Miller and Quinn Early, chosen in the first and third rounds, respectively, and four big offensive linemen should add excitement and stability to a young and talented squad.

The 44-year-old executive came to the Chargers from the Los Angeles Raiders, where he served as director of football operations since 1978 and special teams coach since 1979. During his nine seasons in Oakland and Los Angeles, Ortmayer and the Raiders participated in playoff action five times while taking home two Super Bowl rings (following the 1980 and 1983 seasons).

Ortmayer is a veteran of 13 NFL seasons, beginning in 1975 with the Kansas City Chiefs. He served as special teams coach for the Chiefs until joining the Raiders in 1978. It was with the Chiefs under head coach Paul Wiggin that Ortmayer became involved in pro personnel, an area in which his responsibilities expanded when he joined the Raiders.

The first assignment of his nine-year collegiate coaching career was in 1967 as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado. He became offensive line coach in 1968 and was an offensive and defensive assistant until he became the offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1974.

Conrad Stephen Ortmayer was born Feb. 13, 1944, in the Cleveland suburb of Painesville, Ohio. He attended Highland Park High in Dallas, Texas, where his father was a professor of theology and the arts at Southern Methodist University. Ortmayer played one season at Vanderbilt University, then transferred to LaVerne College in LaVerne, California, 60 miles east of Los Angeles and played three seasons at center. Steve obtained a degree in English and physical education upon graduation in 1967.

Steve and his wife, Merylee, reside in San Diego with their two sons, Beau (Jan. 22, 1980) and Cody (Sept. 1, 1985).

AL SAUNDERS

Head Coach
6th NFL Season
6th Season with Chargers

In 1987, Al Saunders' first full season as head coach of the San Diego Chargers, he guided the team to its first winning season in five years and continued the team's resurgence back to the top of the tough AFC Western Division.

The young head coach has succeeded under less-than-ideal conditions. In 1986, Saunders took over the 1-7 Chargers at the season's midway point, seeing them through one of the toughest transitional periods in club history. He turned the tide as the team won 3 of its first 6 games.

Saunders was quick to prepare for another major obstacle he would encounter in his first full season a year ago—a players' strike. Using many of the players the coaching staff had prepared during training camp, a strike team was quickly fielded and Saunders and his staff coached the "Re-Chargers" to become one of only two undefeated replacement teams and give the Chargers momentum coming out of the strike.

Upon the strike's end, Saunders and the team regrouped and continued on their winning ways. The regulars won their next four games to give the team eight straight wins, their longest winning streak in 26 years, and the best record in the NFL at 8-1.

When Saunders took over as head coach Oct. 29, 1986, then the youngest head coach in the NFL at 39, he revealed a balanced offense and attacking, dominating defense. His philosophy manifested itself in the second half of the 1986 season and throughout 1987. During the eight-week period Weeks 7-14 of 1986, no defense allowed fewer yards than the Chargers. A ferocious pass rush produced 38 sacks in the final eight games and led to a club record 62 sacks, second in the NFL. This defensive attack continued in 1987 as the team finished with 45 sacks, most in the AFC.

Saunders' dedication to detail and hard work were quickly discovered upon his arrival to the Chargers and the National Football League in 1983. He served as receivers coach from 1983-85 and was named assistant head coach following the 1985 season.

His rise in the NFL followed a 13-year collegiate coaching career, beginning as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California in 1970. He moved to Missouri as receivers coach in 1972 and offensive backfield coach at Utah State, 1973-75. Saunders was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of California at Berkeley from 1976-81, directing an offense that set 32 national, Pacific 10 Conference, and school records. He served at the University of Tennessee in 1982 as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach before joining the Chargers.

Alan Keith Saunders was born Feb. 1, 1947, in London, England, making him only the third foreign-born head coach in NFL history. His family moved to Ontario, Canada, when he was 5 and to San Diego when he was 10. Saunders was 13 when he became a naturalized United States citizen in 1960 in San Francisco, where he attended St. Ignatius High. He enrolled at San Jose State as a freshman in 1965 and played five seasons of football, starting at defensive back for four seasons and serving as team captain during his senior season. He was graduated with academic honors and with a degree in physical education in 1969 and obtained his master's degree in education from Stanford University in 1970, before enrolling at the University of Southern California, where he is completing his doctorate in athletic administration and sports management.

Saunders was a prep all-America swimmer in high school and set national Amateur Athletic Union age-group records. At San Jose State he was named to the Academic all-America football team in 1967 and was a Dean's List scholar. Saunders also was selected to appear in the 1969 edition of Outstanding College Athletes of America. Saunders recently was inducted into San Jose State's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Saunders' dedication and enthusiasm have carried over to his work in the San Diego community for local charities and organizations such as Children's Hospital, Logan Heights Family Center, Boy Scouts of America, San Diego City Schools, and the Arthritis Foundation. He is a strong advocate of San Diego's "Say No to Drugs" campaigns, serving on the Board of Governors of "Athletes for a Stronger America" and the San Diego Community Chemical Dependency Advisory Board. In addition Saunders serves on the board of directors for the San Diego Easter Seal Society and has been appointed to California State Legislature's Ad-Hoc Committee on Licensed and Designated Sports.

Saunders is married to the former Karen Mize of Palos Verdes, California. They reside in San Diego's Scripps Ranch with their two sons, Bobby (Nov. 28, 1976) and Joey (March 21, 1979), and daughter Korrin (June 18, 1981).

Paul Stachelek

ASSISTANT COACHES

RON LYNN

Defensive Coordinator
3rd NFL Season
3rd Season with Chargers

Ron Lynn came to the Chargers and the National Football League Jan. 19, 1986. As defensive coordinator, Lynn also coaches the defensive backfield and is the first Chargers' defensive coordinator to call signals from the booth since 1967.

In two seasons under Lynn's guidance, the Chargers have become one of the most improved defenses in the NFL. Lynn took over a defense which ranked 28th and last in the NFL in 1985 and, with an aggressive, attacking style, jumped to 23rd in 1986 and 15th a year ago. More dramatic was the improvement of the Chargers' pass defense which ranked last in 1985. By putting constant pressure on the quarterback, San Diego moved up to 25th in 1986 and catipulted to the fourth-best pass defense in the NFL last season, the best ranking against the pass since the Chargers joined the NFL in 1970.

The Chargers' well-prepared defensive strike team set two team records in its first outing—one passing first down allowed and –13 net passing yards allowed—Oct. 4, 1987, at Cincinnati.

In Lynn's first year with the Chargers, the team set a club record with 62 quarterback sacks and recovered an NFL-high 22 fumbles while finishing 7th against the run.

Lynn coordinated the defense of the Oakland Invaders of the USFL, 1983-85. Lynn's defense led the league in sacks in 1983 with 74 while finishing third in overall defense. His 1985 squad finished second against the run, allowing 101.8 yards a game.

Before joining the Invaders, he spent three seasons at the University of California, the last two as defensive coordinator, 1981-82. Lynn was defensive coordinator at the University of the Pacific in 1979 and at San Jose State, 1977-78. Lynn also coached at Kent State (1974-76), Mt. Union College (1968-73), and Toledo (1966-67).

Ronald William Lynn was born Dec. 6, 1944, in Youngstown, Ohio. He played football and baseball for the Struthers High Wildcats, Struthers, Ohio, and at Mt. Union College, Alliance, Ohio. Lynn received a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry from Mt. Union College and a Master's degree in education from the University of Toledo. Ron and his wife, Cynthia, reside in the Del Mar district.

JERRY RHOME

Offensive Coordinator
13th NFL Season
1st Season with Chargers

Rhome took over the reins of the Chargers' offense on Feb. 12, 1988, fresh off a 40-10 Washington victory in Super Bowl XXII, the second Super Bowl appearance in his five seasons as quarterback coach of the Redskins.

Rhome was a key figure in the development of the Redskins' offense and quarterbacks Doug Williams and Jay Schroeder. During Rhome's five years, Washington's offense ranked in the top 10 four times and the top five three times, including third in 1987. The Redskins' passing game ranked fourth in the NFL last season and led the league for the second straight year in yards per completion.

The former NFL quarterback coached seven seasons with the Seattle Seahawks, joining the new franchise in 1976 as receivers and quarterbacks coach before becoming offensive coordinator from 1978-82. Rhome helped mold the careers of free agent quarterbacks Jim Zorn and Dave Krieg. He also was instrumental in the career of free agent wide receiver Steve Largent, whom he coached at Tulsa University and Seattle.

Rhome began his coaching career at his alma mater, Tulsa, where he was offensive coordinator from 1973-75.

Over an eight-year NFL playing career, Jerry played on three conference championship teams and was in the playoffs a fourth time. A future draft selection by Dallas (NFL) and the New York Jets (AFL) in 1963 as a junior, Rhome joined Dallas after his senior season and played from 1965-68 with the Cowboys. He also played for Cleveland (1969), Houston (1970), and Los Angeles (1971-72). Rhome teamed with assistant coach Charlie Joiner in 1970 for Houston against the Chargers for Joiner's first touchdown and first 100-yard receiving game. The team played to a 31-31 tie in San Diego stadium.

As a quarterback at Tulsa, Rhome broke 17 NCAA passing records on his way to earning all-America recognition and being selected the Washington Touchdown Club and AP Back of the Year his senior season in 1964. He also won the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy as College Player of the Year and finished runner-up in the 1964 Heisman Trophy balloting.

Jerry Byron Rhome was born March 6, 1942, in Dallas, Texas, where he grew up and played prep football, basketball, and baseball for the Sunset High Bisons. He earned high school all-America honors before attending Southern Methodist for two years and transferring to Tulsa, where he earned a degree in education. Jerry and his wife, Sharon, have three children—Shannon (Oct. 7, 1968), Nicole (April 27, 1973), and Brett (April 12, 1980)—and reside in Poway.

WAYNE SEVIER

Special Teams Coordinator

13th NFL Season
4th Season with Chargers

Sevier joined the Chargers for the second time in his NFL coaching career in 1987, returning to coordinate the Chargers' special teams. As special teams coach, Sevier aided the Chargers as they won AFC West titles in 1979 and 1980.

Success has followed Sevier throughout his NFL career. The 46-year-old San Diego native has helped his team to the playoffs in 8 of his 10 full NFL seasons, all as special teams coach, including 4 of the last 6 seasons with the Washington Redskins.

Sevier's career in the NFL began in 1974 with the St. Louis Cardinals where he served for two years. He coached the Atlanta Falcons' special teams and worked with the defensive line for the second half of the 1976 season. Sevier was the head coach and athletic director of the school district in Kellogg, Idaho, from 1977 until being hired by the Chargers Feb. 23, 1979.

Sevier made the jump from high school head coach directly to the NFL. He was a head football coach in the Sweetwater School District in National City, a suburb of San Diego, from 1965-73, except for one year at Cal Western University in San Diego in 1968.

Wayne Milton Sevier was born July 3, 1941, in San Diego and attended Sweetwater High. He was Don Coryell's first starting quarterback at San Diego State in 1961 and helped lead the Aztecs to their first California Collegiate Athletic Association title in 1962. Wayne graduated with academic distinction in math in 1963 from San Diego State. Wayne and his wife, Barbara, reside in Escondido, California. He has four children—Mike (May, 22, 1959), Lorine (May, 5, 1961), Thane (July, 9, 1962), and Anna (Jan. 19, 1975).

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM

Assistant Coach
7th NFL Season
4th Season with Chargers

Cunningham is in his fourth season of coaching the Chargers' defensive line. Despite the loss of 1986 NFL Rookie of the Year Leslie O'Neal to injury, the Chargers led the AFC with 45 quarterback sacks, topped by Lee Williams' 8 sacks. San Diego placed three players in double figures in 1986 while setting a club record and finishing second in the NFL with 62 quarterback sacks.

Cunningham joined the Chargers' Jan. 7, 1985, as special defensive assistant and coordinator in the evaluation of pro personnel before he assumed his present role January 31, 1985.

Cunningham was the defensive line coach for the Indianapolis Colts, 1982-84. Prior to joining the NFL, Gunther served one year as the defensive line and linebacker coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League in 1981. He served four seasons (1977-80) at the University of California, where he worked with the defensive secondary in 1977 and then served as defensive coordinator in his final three years.

Cunningham has been a collegiate or professional coach since being graduated from the University of Oregon, where he was a linebacker and placekicker from 1966-68. He coached the Ducks' defensive line for three seasons (1969-71) before moving to Arkansas as defensive secondary coach (1972) and then to Stanford to handle the defensive linemen (1973-76).

Gunther Manfred Cunningham was born Dec. 6, 1944, in Munich, Germany. He moved to Lompoc, California, in 1962 and attended Lompoc High. Gunther received a degree in anthropology from Oregon. He and his wife, Rene, have a daughter, Natalie (July 14, 1976), and a son, Adam (Dec. 11, 1982). The Cunninghams reside in the Rancho Bernardo district.

MIKE HALUCHAK

Assistant Coach
3rd NFL Season
3rd Season with Chargers

Haluchak has been coaching the Chargers' linebackers since he came to San Diego and the NFL Jan. 19, 1986. He served three years as linebackers coach with the USFL Oakland Invaders (1983-85) after seven years on the collegiate level.

The Chargers' linebackers have become one of the strongest units in the league, led by Billy Ray Smith, the team's 1987 Most Valuable Player, and newcomer Chip Banks as both earned postseason honors. Smith led the team in tackles, interceptions, and forced fumbles.

Haluchak coached linebackers at North Carolina State (1982), California (1981), and University of the Pacific (1979-80), secondary at Cal-State Fullerton (1978), and was a graduate assistant at Southern California (1976-77).

Mike coached high school football in California at Royal High in Simi Valley (1972, 1975), Elsinore High (1973), and Duarte High near Monrovia (1974).

Haluchak had a four-year collegiate playing career at Southern California, 1967-70. He started as a fullback, played strong safety, and finished at inside linebacker. Haluchak played in the 1969 and '70 Rose Bowls versus Ohio State and Michigan.

Michael Alex Haluchak was born Nov. 28, 1949, in Concord, California. He attended Clayton Valley High in Concord where he lettered in football and track for the Eagles. Haluchak received a degree in history from USC and earned a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran College. Mike and his wife, Carol, reside in University City.

BOBBY JACKSON

Assistant Coach

6th NFL Season
2nd Season with Chargers

Jackson joined the Chargers in 1987, after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons in which he coached linebackers (1983-85) and H-backs and tight ends (1986).

Jackson's college coaching career spans eighteen years. Jackson coached linebackers and defensive ends at Florida State (1965-69). From 1970-74, the 48-year-old native of Forsyth, Georgia, was the linebacker coach and defensive coordinator at Kansas State and held the same responsibilities in 1975-76 at Louisville. He went to Tennessee as running back coach in 1977 and later coached linebackers and was defensive coordinator for the Volunteers (1980-82).

Jackson played football, basketball, and participated in track at Mary Persons High in Forsyth, Georgia. He played two seasons at South Georgia Junior College in Douglas, Ga., prior to ending his playing career as a two-time Little all-America running back at Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama (now Samford University) in 1961-62. He was graduated from Howard in 1963 with a degree in physical education, in which he later earned a Master's Degree at George Peabody College in Nashville (now part of Vanderbilt University). He immediately began his coaching career as an assistant at Birmingham's Shades Valley High School (1963-64).

Born Feb. 16, 1940, in Forsyth, Georgia, Robert Lanier Jackson and his wife, Nancy, now reside in Rancho Bernardo. The Jacksons have two sons—Jeff (Dec. 28, 1966) and Ken (April 10, 1969).

CHARLIE JOINER

Assistant Coach

20th NFL Season
13th Season with Chargers

Joiner made the switch from wide receiver to receivers coach in 1987, after retiring from an 18-year career with 750 catches and 12,146 yards, both NFL records upon his retirement.

Joiner's vast experience in the NFL will be a great asset to the youngest receiving corps in the league. San Diego returns three receivers with 21 career receptions and selected two of the fastest players in the 1988 draft in the first and third rounds.

While playing in Houston (1969-72), Cincinnati (1972-75), and San Diego since 1976, Joiner was an indestructible force playing in 239 games, a record for wide receivers.

Since coming in a trade from Cincinnati in 1976 for defensive tackle Coy Bacon, Joiner became the Chargers' all-time leading receiver with 586 receptions. He played in 194 consecutive games from 1973-86, 163 with the Chargers, and was named the team's most inspirational player for the seventh consecutive time after the 1986 season. Charlie was voted to Pro Bowl honors following the 1976, '79, and '80 seasons. He was honored by the City of San Diego on "Charlie Joiner Day" twice, once in 1984 and 1986.

Joiner was selected in the fourth round of the 1969 NFL draft by Houston as a defensive back and was later traded to Cincinnati in 1972 for running back Fred Willis and Paul Robinson.

Charlie Joiner, Jr., was born Oct. 14, 1947, in Many, Louisiana, and grew up in Lake Charles, La. Charlie was a four-year letterman at Grambling State University, 1965-68. He played football for the W.O. Boston High Panthers in Lake Charles. Joiner and his wife, Dianne, made their home in Houston during his playing career where he worked as a management trainee for Gulf Oil's accounting department in the offseason. The Joiners and their two daughters—Jynaya (June 11, 1975) and Kori (Oct. 29, 1976)—reside in the Rancho Bernardo suburb of San Diego.

DAVE LEVY

Assistant Coach
9th NFL Season
9th Season with Chargers

Levy has taken over the newly-created role of coaching the tight ends and H-backs, a first-ever position for the Chargers, and guides one of the most talent-rich areas of the team. Levy is coaching players like ten-year veteran and five-time Pro Bowl tight end Kellen Winslow, eight-year veteran Eric Sievers, and the Chargers' top choice in the 1987 draft, Rod Bernstine, in their new roles as tight ends and H-backs, new to the offense with the arrival of offensive coordinator Jerry Rhome.

Levy joined the Chargers' coaching staff in 1980 and is the senior member of the staff. He served as offensive line coach, 1980-82 and 1986, and offensive coordinator, 1983-85 and 1987, while continuing to coach the offensive line. Under Levy, the Chargers led the NFL in 1981-83 allowing one sack every 27 pass attempts.

Levy coached for sixteen years at the University of Southern California (1960-75). During this period USC appeared in the Rose Bowl eight times. Levy served as Assistant Athletic Director at USC from 1976-79 before joining the Chargers.

David Allan Levy was born Oct. 25, 1932, in Carrollton, Missouri. Levy grew up in Long Beach, California, and played football for the Poly High Jackrabbits. Levy also played two seasons at Long Beach City College and was a guard at UCLA in 1952-53. He coached the UCLA frosh in 1954, assisted at Long Beach City in 1955, then returned to Poly High, becoming varsity coach in 1957 and compiling a 28-1-1 record in three seasons, capped by Southern California championships in 1958-59.

Dave and his wife, Barrie, reside in Solana Beach. They have two sons, John (July 17, 1955) and Robert (Oct. 23, 1958), and two daughters, Laurie (Oct. 24, 1948) and Gayle (Jan. 10, 1950).

JERRY WAMPFLER

Assistant Coach
16th NFL Season
1st Season with Chargers

Wampfler joined the Chargers Feb. 12, 1988, to coach the offensive line. He is in his 16th season in the NFL and 35th year of coaching on the high school, college, or professional level.

Wampfler spent the last four seasons, 1984-87, with the Green Bay Packers as offensive line coach. He developed one of the NFL's youngest groups into a force which led a running game which had the second best rushing average in the NFL in 1985.

Wampfler's NFL career began in 1973 in Philadelphia where he coached defensive line for three seasons. He coached defensive line in Buffalo, 1976-77, and switched to the offensive line with the New York Giants in 1978. Jerry moved back to Philadelphia as running game coordinator and offensive line coach, 1979-83, coaching the Eagles in Super Bowl XV before joining Green Bay.

Wampfler became a high school coach in 1954 at his alma mater, New Philadelphia High in New Philadelphia, Ohio. He also coached at Presbyterian College, Clinton, S.C. (1955); Lancaster High, Lancaster, Ohio (1956, 62), and Perry High, Massilon, Ohio (1957-61). He coached under Bo Schembechler at his collegiate alma mater, Miami of Ohio, 1963-65; Notre Dame, 1966-69, and was head coach at Colorado State in 1970.

Jerry Wampfler was born Aug. 6, 1932, in New Philadelphia, Ohio, and earned all-State honors for New Philadelphia High Quakers. He continued as a standout offensive tackle at Miami of Ohio from 1951-54 where he earned a degree in physical education. Jerry later earned a master's degree in education from Xavier. Jerry and his wife, Carol, have three children, Nan, Jody, and Tad.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

CHET FRANKLIN

Director of Player Personnel
18th NFL Season
2nd Season with Chargers

Franklin joined the Chargers May 18, 1987, coming from the AFC West rival Los Angeles Raiders where he coached the defensive backfield the past seven seasons, 1980-86.

Franklin coordinates the Chargers' scouting department, both on the professional and collegiate levels.

The 53-year-old Franklin has a coaching background that spans 16 NFL seasons and 12 collegiate seasons. Prior to joining the Raiders, Franklin coached defensive backs for the New Orleans Saints (1978-79); was offensive coordinator (1975-76) and linebackers coach (1977) for the Kansas City Chiefs, and came to the NFL as defensive backfield and special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers (1971-74).

Collegiately, Franklin was offensive coordinator at Colorado (1963-70); freshman coach at Oklahoma (1960-62), and freshman line coach at Stanford (1959).

Chester Arthur Franklin was born March 19, 1935, in Ortario, Oregon. He played football, basketball, and ran track at Elko High in Elko, Nevada. Chet played linebacker and guard three seasons at the University of Utah, earning all-Conference honors twice and was team captain. He graduated with a degree in history and physical education. After a two-year stint in the Marines, Franklin earned a master's degree in education from Stanford in 1959. Chet, his wife Ann, and daughter Shana (Aug. 13, 1967) reside in San Diego.

RUDY FELDMAN

Pro Personnel
14th NFL Season
6th Season with Chargers

Feldman took over the pro personnel department of the Chargers May 27, 1987, and has a coaching background spanning 13 NFL seasons and 17 college seasons. Feldman will coordinate the evaluation of talent in the NFL and other professional leagues as well as assist in the collegiate draft.

This is Feldman's second stint with the Chargers, as he came to the Chargers and the NFL in 1974 as defensive line coach. He coached the offensive line in 1977 before leaving to join the St. Louis Cardinals in 1978. He coached the defensive line (1978-81) and linebackers (1982-85) in St. Louis.

Feldman was the head coach at the University of New Mexico from 1968-73, including conference coach of the year in 1970. He was chief assistant coach at Colorado (1963-67); he coached both sides of the line at Oklahoma (1958-62), and joined the college ranks in 1957 at Iowa State.

Rudolf Arthur Feldman was born May 18, 1932, in San Francisco. He participated in football, basketball, track and wrestling at Palo Alto High in Palo Alto, Calif., before playing offensive guard at UCLA from 1951-53 and captaining an 8-1 team which played in the 1954 Rose Bowl. Rudy received a degree in physical education from UCLA. He and his wife, Joanne, have two sons, Kirk (Sept. 30, 1957) and Kent (Dec. 27, 1960), and a daughter Lisa (Oct. 30, 1964). The Feldmans reside in San Diego.

LES MILLER

Director of College Scouting

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS™

Samuel N. Stone

Winslow was voted Chargers' outstanding offensive player in 1987.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1988

For the third consecutive year, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1987 with the exception that the Replay Officials will now be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game. League office personnel will no longer be used as Replay Officials. In 1987, there were 490 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 57 reversals 210 games for an average of one reversal in each four games. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed resulting in 38 reversals in 224 games.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a "no frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeing; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.

1987 Game by Game

WEEK 1

At Kansas City 20, San Diego 13
Sunday, Sept. 13

San Diego fought back to tie the score, 13-13, with 3:37 left in the game before falling just 18 seconds later when Kansas City rookie Paul Palmer returned the ensuing kickoff 95 yards to seal the Chiefs' victory in Arrowhead Stadium. San Diego turned the ball over on its first two possessions and three times in the first half and trailed 10-0 at halftime. Two interceptions led to scores. Dan Fouts hit Gary Anderson on a 34-yard scoring toss and Vince Abbott hit field goals from 32 and 33 yards to tie the score in the fourth quarter before the first kickoff return for touchdown against San Diego since 1979. The Chiefs outgained the Chargers 174 yards to 84 yards rushing and controlled the ball 32:31 to 27:29. The San Diego defense allowed only 6 completions in 15 attempts and notched 4 sacks.

WEEK 2

At San Diego 28, St. Louis 24
Sunday, Sept. 20

San Diego dominated the opening half, taking a 28-0 halftime lead, and held on for a 28-24 win. San Diego jumped out early as Lionel James fielded a punt on its first possession and went 81 yards for the first touchdown on a punt return by a Charger since James went 58 yards at Pittsburgh Nov. 25, 1984. It also tied for the fifth longest in club history. Neil Lomax completed 32 of 61 passes for 457 yards in the game, including 20 of 32 for 250 yards and 3 touchdowns in the second half. Sixty-one pass attempts is a record against the Chargers. The 412 net yards passing is second only to 433 yards by Minnesota Oct. 11, 1981.

WEEK 3

San Diego 10, at Cincinnati 9
Sunday, Oct. 4

The Chargers came from behind with 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to win the first game with the replacement team. San Diego marched 86 yards on 8 plays behind backup quarterback Mike Kelley and scored on a one-yard run by Frank Middleton. Jeff Gaffney hit a 24-yard field goal with 2:44 remaining to end the scoring. San Diego allowed just 206 total net yards, including just 80 yards in the second half, while setting a club record by holding the Bengals to −13 net yards passing. It broke the record of zero passing yards allowed versus Cincinnati Dec. 6, 1970. The defense also set a record by allowing only one passing first down. Kelley finished the day completing 7 of 9 passes for 110 yards in little over one quarter. He relieved Rick Neuheisel who completed 10 of 19 for 84 yards.

WEEK 4

San Diego 17, at Tampa Bay 13
Sunday, Oct. 11

San Diego came back from a 10-0 halftime deficit on the arm of backup quarterback Rick Neuheisel to win, 17-13, in Tampa. Neuheisel, in relief of Mike Kelley, completed 18 of 22 passes (.818) and set a club single-game pass percentage record. Just a week earlier, Kelley relieved Neuheisel and led the Chargers to a 10-9 victory in Cincinnati after trailing 9-0 after three quarters. San Diego gained 255 yards in the second half. Neuheisel's record-setting performance surpassed the mark set by Dan Fouts versus Seattle Oct. 4, 1979, where he completed 28 of 35 passes (.800). The defense allowed just 7 first downs, tying for the third-fewest allowed in club history and fewest since 1978. San Diego allowed just 72 yards passing.

WEEK 5

San Diego 23, at Los Angeles 17
Sunday, Oct. 18

The Chargers' replacement team turned in its third straight come-from-behind road victory when cornerback Elvis Patterson returned an interception 75 yards for a touchdown with 18 seconds remaining in the game to defeat the Raiders for the first time in the Coliseum, 23-17. Trailing 14-7 midway through the third quarter, Mike Kelley replaced Rick Neuheisel at quarterback and led the offense to scores in his second and third series. San Diego won three replacement games behind the backup quarterback. San Diego tied the score, 17-17, with 8:07 remaining when Kelley hit Al Williams on a 7-yard scoring toss. The defense allowed only 4 pass completions in 16 attempts and 42 yards passing in the second half. San Diego and San Francisco had the only replacement teams to go undeafeated. San Diego had not found itself in first place after five games since it won the division title in 1981.

WEEK 7

At San Diego 27, Cleveland 24
Sunday, Nov. 1

San Diego came from behind with 10 fourth-quarter points against the NFL's best pass defense to send the game into overtime, 24-24, and won the game when safety Vencie Glenn intercepted a pass on the third overtime play and Vince Abbott hit a 33-yard field goal to win it. Interceptions set up the Chargers' first and final scores. Former Browns' linebacker Chip Banks picked off Bernie Kosar's first attempt and the Chargers scored on the next play when Lionel James went around right end for 15 yards. Rookie Rod Bernstine put San Diego ahead, 14-7, in the first quarter on a 10-yard pass from Dan Fouts for his first NFL score. San Diego came back from a 24-14 fourth quarter deficit and tied the score, 24-24, with 1:46 remaining on a 20-yard Vince Abbott field goal. Fouts hit 25 of 42 passes for 315 yards and 2 touchdowns. Kellen Winslow led the team with 7 receptions.

WEEK 8

San Diego 16, at Indianapolis 13
Sunday, Nov. 8

San Diego came from behind in the fourth quarter for the fifth time in the last six games, beating the Colts in Indianapolis, 16-13. Behind the running of Eric Dickerson, the Colts ran up a 13-0 halftime lead. Dickerson gained 103 yards on 24 carries in the first half while the Chargers committed three turnovers. But San Diego rallied behind a defense which held Dickerson to 35 yards on 11 carries in the second half. Vince Abbott kicked field goals from 42 and 37 yards on San Diego's opening drives of the third quarter and the Chargers tied the game when Dan Fouts hit Lionel James from five yards out to open the fourth period. San Diego forced a Dickerson fumble which was recovered in the Chargers' endzone and marched 59 yards in 11 plays before Abbott kicked the winning 39-yard field goal with 12 second left.

WEEK 9

At San Diego 16, L.A. Raiders 14

Sunday, Nov. 15

San Diego made it eight in a row and swept the Raiders for the first time since 1981 when it notched a 16-14 victory at home in front of a national television audience. The Chargers scored 16 first-half points when Dan Fouts hit Kellen Winslow from nine yards out and Vince Abbott nailed field goals from 38, 47 and 39 yards. The Raiders scored twice in the fourth quarter, including once with 16 seconds remaining. San Diego's offense controlled the ball, 34:12 to 25:48, while the defense allowed just 12 first downs and only one third down conversion in 12 tries. Abbott hit his first three tries for a streak of eight straight before missing from 53 yards. His successes were his first while San Diego had the lead.

WEEK 11

Denver 31, at San Diego 17
Sunday, Nov. 29

Despite the longest interception return in NFL history—103 yards by Vencie Glenn in the first quarter—the Chargers lost their second game in a row, 31-17, in San Diego. Glenn provided the Chargers with their only lead, 7-0, as Denver's John Elway threw for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Denver notched 522 total yards and were successful on 12 of 15 third down attempts. For the second week in a row, the Chargers controlled the ball less than one-third of the game. The Chargers ran just 52 plays, but had a season-high 312 yards passing and averaged 7.3 yards per play, another season high. San Diego converted just two third-down tries for the third week in a row. San Diego's offense went eight quarters without a touchdown before Curtis Adams ran it in from one yard out in the fourth quarter.

WEEK 15

At Denver 24, San Diego 0
Sunday, Dec. 27

San Diego finished the season with its first winning record since 1982 despite ending with six straight losses. The Chargers ran into blizzard conditions at Mile High Stadium—blowing snow in 20-degree temperatures and −9 wind chill—and fell to the Broncos, 24-0. It was the 22nd time San Diego has been shut out and first time since Oct. 29, 1984. San Diego was held to 151 total yards, the lowest total since Sept. 18, 1977, when the Chargers notched 121 total yards. San Diego fell behind early as K.C. Clark returned a punt after the Chargers' opening possession 71 yards for a touchdown. Mark Herrmann started for the injured Dan Fouts and hit 13 of 23 passes for 123 yards and 4 interceptions. Quarterback Mark Vlasic saw his first NFL action and hit 3 of 6 passes.

CHARGERS™

On the Air

XTRA, the 50,000-watt sports voice of Southern California at 690 on the AM dial, is in the second year as flagship station of the Chargers' radio network. XTRA's eight-hour game day broadcast can be heard during all 20 Chargers' preseason and regular season games.

KGTV, Channel 10, an affiliate of the American Broadcasting Company, will telecast the Chargers' four preseason games in San Diego. The team's three home preseason games will be shown on a delayed broadcast unless sold out 72 hours in advance. The Chargers' game versus the Rams in Anaheim will be shown live Aug. 13 at 8 p.m.

LEE HAMILTON

Lee Hamilton, the Voice of the Chargers, handles the play-by-play and also anchors XTRA's eight-hour gameday broadcasts. He hosts the two-hour pregame show, Countdown to Kickoff, and the postgame Chargers Talk program. Hamilton also hosts San Diego's number one sports talk show, San Diego Sportsnight, on XTRA.

PAT CURRAN

Pat Curran, an eleven-year veteran tight end with the Chargers and Rams, returns as color analyst during the regular season on radio broadcasts and anchors the Lockerroom Report postgame show. He also will supply the color commentary during the four preseason telecasts on KGTV. Pat has spent 20 years working in the NFL and serves as the Chargers' Business Manager.

JIM LASLAVIC

Jim Laslavic, who spent 10 years as an NFL linebacker with Detroit, Green Bay, and San Diego, joins the XTRA broadcast crew as color man with Curran during the regular season and will be the lone color man during preseason radio broadcasts. He also hosts the Halftime Huddle. Laslavic has served as a TV sports anchor the past five years in San Diego.

MIKE SMITH

Mike Smith, a 22-year veteran of television sports broadcasting, calls the play-by-play action for the Chargers' preseason telecasts on KGTV, Channel 10. It marks the 13th season for Smith on the Chargers' preseason television team. He handled sports at KCST, Channel 39, 1967-81; KGTV, Channel 10, 1981-86; KNBC in Los Angeles, 1986-88, before joining KGTV this year.

Rick Geissler

Williams has led Chargers in sacks past three seasons.

Miller Lite NFL Lineman of the Year Award "Supporting the Working Class"

The NFL "Lineman of the Year" award, sponsored by Miller Lite, has been created to honor those athletes who seldom gain the recognition they deserve . . . the giants of pro football . . . the offensive and defensive linemen. They toil in the trenches in near obscurity, battling each other often for mere inches when the "stars" of the game perform their magic.

During the months of October and November, you will have an opportunity to show your support for the "working class" of pro football. Each of the 28 NFL teams has nominated two of its top big men, one offensive lineman and one defensive lineman, for the prestigious award. The Chargers' nominees are tackle Jim Lachey, the Chargers' 1986 and 1987 Lineman of the Year, and defensive end Lee Williams, who led the Chargers in sacks the past three seasons. You can cast your vote through Nov. 21, including a special Ballot Box Day at the Stadium Oct. 2 when the Chargers host the AFC Champion Denver Broncos. The top vote-getter from both offense and defense will receive $25,000 from Miller to be donated to the charity of the player's choice. The winners will be announced during the playoffs.

Lachey earned his first pro bowl appearance last season.
